

SUPERMOM FILM COURSE

Are you a lone parent? Are you interested in learning about filmmaking and working in a team to make a short film?

Then READ ON for more about Supermom!

This FREE 10-week film skills course offers you a chance to:

- Learn about different aspects of filmmaking, including camera work, costume making, script writing and more
- Meet film industry professionals and discover more about opportunities within the industry
- Be part of a team that creates and shoots a short film, which will be screened in Belfast and in Paris
- Gain confidence and learn new skills
- Meet new people and connect with other lone parents

The course starts Monday 17th October and is delivered every Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 9:30am to 1:30pm in Gingerbread's premises, 169 University Street, Belfast.

It is open to lone parents who are not currently in paid employment.

Contact Whitney on 028 9023 1417 or email whitney@gingerbreadni.org to find out more!

*Possibilities NI is the social enterprise of lone parent support charity Gingerbread NI. All proceeds raised by the social enterprise are fed back into the charity.